

621(XXXI) CARIBBEAN DEVELOPMENT AND COOPERATION COMMITTEE

The Economic Commission for Latin America and the Caribbean,

Recalling its resolution 358(XVI) of 1975 establishing the Caribbean Development and Cooperation Committee as a subsidiary organ of the Economic Commission for Latin America and the Caribbean to act as a coordinating body for activities relating to development and cooperation in that subregion,

Recognizing the important role of the Caribbean Development and Cooperation Committee as a forum in which the Governments of the subregion can exchange information and share experiences with a view to meeting the primary challenges posed by the process of sustainable development in the economic and social fields,

Bearing in mind that, as a subsidiary organ of the Commission, the Caribbean Development and Cooperation Committee held its twenty-first session in Port of Spain, Trinidad and Tobago, on 16 and 17 January 2006, that the Monitoring Committee of the Caribbean Development and Cooperation Committee held its twelfth meeting in Port of Spain, Trinidad and Tobago, on 12 May 2005 and that, on those occasions, they adopted a series of agreements and resolutions which appear in their respective reports,¹

Takes note of the report and endorses the resolutions of the twenty-first session of the Caribbean Development and Cooperation Committee pertaining to the work of the Commission's Subregional Headquarters for the Caribbean,

Calls upon the secretariat to support the mobilization of additional resources for the full and successful implementation of the Programme of Work for the Caribbean subregion.
