INTRODUCCION

Este trabajo no es otra cosa que un intento para centralizar la información y facilitar la búsqueda de libros de sociología existentes en diez bibliotecas especializadas de Santiago. Está destinado tanto a las bibliotecas mismas como a las personas dedicadas a la investigación social. Se ajusta al esquema de la International Bibliography of Sociology (Unesco, Paris, 1961) como modelo para clasificar los datos. Estos fueron obtenidos directamente de los catálogos o de listas que las bibliotecas aquí incluidas tuvieron la gentileza de proporcionar.

Las autoras agradecen al R.P. Roger Vekemans, Director del Centro para el Desarrollo Económico y Social de América Latina (DESAL) y a los señores José Medina Echavarría, Director de la División de Programación Social en el Instituto Latinoamericano de Planificación Económica y Social, Eduardo Hamuy, Director del Centro de Estudios Socio-Económicos de la Facultad de Economía de la Universidad de Chile, a la señora María Benson, Bibliotecaria Jefe de la Biblioteca de La Cepal, el estímulo que recibieron de ellos para la compilación de este catálogo, y en forma especial al señor Enzo Faletto, Profesor del Instituto Latinoamericano de Planificación Económica y Social, las horas que dedicó a colaborar en la selección de los distintos rubros de la clasificación y en su traducción.

Santiago, febrero de 1966.
