Sixteenth meeting of the Executive Committee of the Statistical Conference of the Americas of the Economic Commission for Latin America and the Caribbean

Santiago, 4-6 April 2017

ANNOTATED PROVISIONAL AGENDA

A. BACKGROUND

The Statistical Conference of the Americas of the Economic Commission for Latin America and the Caribbean (ECLAC) is a subsidiary body of the Commission, established pursuant to resolution 2000/7 of the United Nations Economic and Social Council, which defined as follows the objectives of the Conference: to promote the development and improvement of national statistics and work to ensure that they are comparable internationally, bearing in mind the recommendations of the United Nations Statistical Commission, the specialized agencies and other relevant organizations; to promote international, regional and bilateral cooperation among national offices and international and regional agencies; and to draw up a biennial programme of regional and international cooperation activities to meet the demands of the countries of the region, subject to the availability of resources.

The biennial programme of regional and international cooperation activities of the Statistical Conference of the Americas of ECLAC is framed within the Strategic Plan 2015-2025, which established as the pillars of action of the Conference the achievement of more robust institutional and a stronger governing role for national statistical offices; the development of human resources and statistical production in order to ensure quality; and regional and international coordination and cooperation for the development of official statistics in the region.

The agenda for the sixteenth meeting of the Executive Committee includes the review of progress in the implementation of the biennial programme of regional and international cooperation activities of the Conference for 2016-2017 and Conference activities relating to the follow-up of the Sustainable Development Goals. On this occasion, the Executive Committee will also hold a regional seminar on the implementation of the SDG indicators: progress in the construction of the 2030 Agenda follow-up framework in the countries of Latin America and the Caribbean, as well as a joint meeting of the member countries of the Statistical Conference of the Americas of ECLAC and the members of the Regional Committee of the United Nations on Global Geospatial Information Management for the Americas (UN-GGIM-Americas).

B. CHAIR

In accordance with resolution 2000/7 of the United Nations Economic and Social Council, Mexico, in its capacity as Chair of the Executive Committee of the Statistical Conference of the Americas of ECLAC, will preside over the Committee's sixteenth meeting.
