INTRODUCCION

Este Boletín Demográfico, que corresponde a una actualización y ampliación del Boletín Demográfico número 21, enero 1978, tiene como principal objetivo presentar tablas de mortalidad para los 20 países de América Latina.

Estas tablas abreviadas de mortalidad se presentan por sexo y por quinquenios para el período comprendido entre 1950 y 1980.

La característica principal de las tablas de mortalidad que aparecen en este Boletín es que representan la mortalidad utilizada en cada país para la realización de la respectiva proyección de población elaborada por CELADE en colaboración, en la mayoría de los casos, con organismos nacionales de cada país. Algunas de estas tablas han sido construidas previamente a las proyecciones, en otros casos se debieron construir tablas de mortalidad que correspondieran a la mortalidad por sexo y edad implícitas en dichas proyecciones.

Las tablas de mortalidad constituyen el instrumento más adecuado para describir, a través de sus diversas funciones el nivel de la mortalidad según la edad.

INTRODUCTION

The main objective of this issue of the Boletín Demográfico, which corresponds to an up-to-date and enlargement of the Boletín Demográfico number 21, January 1978, is to present life tables for the 20 Latin American countries.

These abridged life tables are presented by sex and quinquenniums for the period 1950-1980.

The principal characteristic of these life tables is that they represent the mortality used in each country in the preparation of the population projections. These projections were elaborated by CELADE with the collaboration, in the majority of cases, of national institutions of the corresponding countries. Some of these tables were constructed before the projections and others were constructed with mortality by sex and age implicit in the population projections.

Life tables are the best instrument to describe the level of mortality according to age.

Panamá:

Proyección elaborada por la Dirección de Estadística y Censo de Panamá (DEC) en colaboración con CELADE, 1983.

Paraguay:

Proyección elaborada por la Secretaría Técnica de Planificación de Paraguay (STP) en colaboración con CELADE, 1980.

Perú:

Proyección elaborada por el Instituto Nacional de Estadística (INE) en colaboración con CELADE, 1983.

República Dominicana:

Proyección elaborada por la Oficina Nacional de Estadística de la República Dominicana (ONE) en colaboración con CELADE, 1981.

Uruguay:

Proyección elaborada por la Dirección General de Estadística y Censos de Uruguay (DGEC) en colaboración con CELADE, 1981.

Venezuela:

Proyección elaborada por la Oficina Central de Estadística e Informática (OCEI) en colaboración con CELADE, 1983.

Las proyecciones de los restantes dos países de América Latina se elaboraron en CELADE.

Con respecto a los otros países y territorios del Caribe la información proviene de proyecciones de población elaboradas por la División de Población de las Naciones Unidas.

La denominada Zona del Canal de Panamá se ha incorporado Panamá en las proyecciones oficiales a partir del año 1980. Por esta razón entre los años 1950 y 1979 se ha incluido en la categoría de "Otros territorios", de acuerdo a la estimación hecha por la División de Población.

Las cifras de población para los años calendario de 1976 a 1979 y de 1981 a 1984 que se presentan en este cuadro, se obtuvieron por interpolación de los valores que para los años 0 y 5 aparecen en las proyecciones anteriormente citadas, utilizando para este efecto los multiplicadores de Karup-King.

La población del período 1980-2025 corresponde a la proyección con una hipótesis de fecundidad media, o recomendada, de cada país.

CUADRO 2 y siguientes: En estos cuadros se presentan tablas abreviadas de mortalidad por sexo para los 20 países de América Latina por quinquenios entre los años 1950-1980. Se dispuso de las tablas de mortalidad construidas y utilizadas en las proyecciones de población para los siguientes países: Bolivia, Colombia, Chile, Ecuador, Perú, Venezuela, Brasil, Paraguay, Uruguay, Nicaragua, Panamá, Haití y México.

En algunos países se dispuso de tablas de mortalidad sólo para algunos períodos: Argentina, entre 1960 y 1980, Costa Rica para los períodos 1960-1965 y 1970-1975.

Para todos los demás casos se construyeron tablas de mortalidad a partir de las relaciones de sobrevivencia utilizadas en las respectivas proyecciones de población. Se elaboró una metodología especialmente para esta finalidad.

The projections for the other two Latin American countries were prepared in CELADE.

The data relating to the other countries and territories of the Caribbean come from the population projections made by the United Nations Population Division.

The area known as the Panama Canal Zone has been incorporated into the official projections for Panama from 1980 on. This is why it is included in the "Other territories" category between 1950 and 1979, in accordance with the estimates made by the Population Division.

Table 2 and following. They present abridged life tables by sex and quinquenniums for the 20 Latin American countries between 1950 and 1980. Life tables available were those constructed and used in the population projections for the following countries: Bolivia, Colombia, Chile, Ecuador, Peru, Venezuela, Brazil, Paraguay, Uruguay, Nicaragua, Panama, Haiti and Mexico.

In some countries life tables were available only for some periods: Argentina, between 1960 and 1980, Costa Rica for the periods 1960-1965 and 1970-1975.

For all the other cases life tables were constructed starting from the survival relationships used in the corresponding population projections. A special methodology was elaborated for this purpose.
