Thirteenth meeting of the Executive Committee of the Statistical Conference of the Americas of the Economic Commission for Latin America and the Caribbean

Santiago, 12-14 August 2014

ANNOTATED PROVISIONAL AGENDA

A. BACKGROUND

The Statistical Conference of the Americas of the Economic Commission for Latin America and the Caribbean (ECLAC) is a subsidiary body of the Commission, established pursuant to resolution 2000/7 of the United Nations Economic and Social Council, which defined as follows the objectives of the Conference: to promote the development and improvement of national statistics and work to ensure that they are comparable internationally, bearing in mind the recommendations of the United Nations Statistical Commission, the specialized agencies and other relevant organizations; to promote international, regional and bilateral cooperation among national offices and international and regional agencies; and to draw up a biennial programme of regional and international cooperation activities to meet the demands of the countries of the region, subject to the availability of resources.

At the seventh meeting of the Statistical Conference of the Americas of ECLAC, held in Santiago in November 2013, it was decided that during the period 2014-2015, Ecuador would serve as Chair of the Executive Committee of the Conference and Belize, Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela, Canada, Costa Rica, Cuba and Spain would serve as members. The duties of the Executive Committee are, among others, to carry out the tasks entrusted to it by the Conference and monitor implementation thereof and to implement the agreements adopted by the Conference.

At its thirteenth meeting, the Executive Committee will review the status of implementation of the Biennial programme of regional and international cooperation activities 2014-2015, adopted by the Statistical Conference of the Americas at its seventh meeting by virtue of resolution 8(VII), and the agreements adopted at the twelfth meeting of the Executive Committee. The Committee will review the status of the plans of action drawn up by the working groups and will assess the possibility of improving their operations; it will also initiate discussions on the criteria for determining the new strategic plan of the Statistical Conference of the Americas of ECLAC. The agenda of the meeting contemplates the holding of a seminar on strategies for the use of administrative records for statistical purposes.

B. CHAIR OF THE CONFERENCE

In accordance with the provisions of resolution 2000/7 of the United Nations Economic and Social Council, Ecuador, in its capacity as Chair of the Committee, will preside over the thirteenth meeting of the Executive Committee.
