Foreword

The Economic Commission for Latin America and the Caribbean (ECLAC), Subregional Headquarters for the Caribbean is pleased to present the twentieth volume of the Selected Statistical Indicators (SSI) of Caribbean Countries. This publication contains a comprehensive set of annual statistical data for the 23 member countries of the Caribbean Development and Cooperation Committee (CDCC).

This year's issue of the SSI has been revised and streamlined in an effort to make it less voluminous and more reader friendly. The thematic scope of publication remains unchanged and features a series of economic and socio-economic indicators for all CDCC member States for the period 2000-2006. The arrangement of the publication has been changed and now features regional tables in the introductory section followed by summary country tables. In addition, the data sources for each country are provided below each table, thereby making this publication a good starting point for researchers who are interested in looking for more detailed statistics. Every effort was made to ensure that those changes did not compromise the quality and usefulness of the publication. To ensure accessibility to the full data series, we have attached for your convenience a CD-rom which features the complete series for each country. Access to these series can also be obtained through our website www.eclacpos.org.

Finally, the ECLAC Subregional Headquarters for the Caribbean wishes to extend sincerest appreciation to the national statistical offices and central banks for their timely submissions that contributed to the overall success of this publication.

DESCRIPTIVE LIST OF INDICATORS COVERED

National Accounts:

This section is divided into three representations of national production: (i) Gross Domestic Product (GDP) at current prices; (ii) GDP at constant prices; and (iii) GDP by the Expenditure Method in current prices. In some cases the data are presented at both factor cost and market price. GDP in current and constant prices are disaggregated to sector item level. GDP expenditure covers the broad categories of Total Final Consumption (private and public), Gross Capital Formation and Good and Non-Factor Services.

Balance of Payments:

For most of the countries, the presentation is the Analytic Summary according to IMF standards, with some accommodation for individual presentation formats. The data are subdivided into particulars of the Current Account (Goods & Services; Income; Transfers), Capital and Financial Account (Transfers, Investments, Acquisition & Disposal of Assets (in some cases)), Errors and Omissions, Overall Balance and Financing Requirements.

Trade:

This section is divided into three subsections: (i) Domestic Exports by SITC Section, (ii) Imports by SITC Section; and (iii) Trade Balance Summary. Data are gathered and reported at the 1-digit level for all ten (sections listed). The trade balance summary captures total exports (FOB value), total imports (CIF value), and trade balance. The SITC sections are:

0. Food and live animals
1. Beverages and tobacco
2. Crude materials except fuels
3. Mineral fuel, lubricants, etc
4. Animal and vegetable oils
5. Chemicals
6. Manufactured goods classified chiefly by materials
7. Machinery and transport equipment
8. Miscellaneous manufactured articles
9. Commodities and transactions not elsewhere classified

Central Government Fiscal Operations

Broadly, this section reports on Revenues and Expenditures of the Central Government. These are further divided along the lines of Current and Capital receipts and spending/ lending. In some cases, the revenues are separated into tax (direct and indirect) and non-tax receipts. Government subsidies and grants are also available. Some examples of current receipts include taxes on income and profits; property; goods and services and international trade and transactions. Some examples of current expenditures are goods and services; wages and salaries; subsidies and transfers and pensions.

Retail Prices:

Covered in this section are the retail price indices, indices of individual goods and services and inflation rates. Relevant base year weights are also given.

Major Statistical Publications – Abstracts

Major Statistical Publications- Abstracts is a biannual publication of the Economic Commission for Latin America and the Caribbean (ECLAC) which seeks to address the ongoing need to provide information about data sources at the national level. This publication is a rich compendium of reference to all statistical publications currently produced and/or in circulation by all ECLAC/CDCC member countries.

Information in this publication is documented using five key fields which include the title of the publication, the publisher, the ISSN number, the frequency of the publication and a brief abstract of the publication's contents. In addition, to facilitate electronic access to the publications documented in this Abstract, the websites for the national statistical offices, central banks and other official sources within each country are provided.
