Fifth meeting of the negotiating committee of the regional agreement on access to information, participation and justice in environmental matters in Latin America and the Caribbean

Santiago, 21-25 November 2016
NOTE BY THE SECRETARIAT

This document contains the advances made in the review of the preamble and articles 1 to 7 of the text compiled by the Presiding Officers and includes the language proposals made by the countries on the preamble and articles 1 to 10 of the preliminary document on the regional agreement on access to information, participation and justice in environmental matters in Latin America and the Caribbean.

The preliminary document was prepared by ECLAC at the request of the signatory countries of the Declaration on the application of Principle 10 of the Rio Declaration on Environment and Development in the Santiago Decision, adopted at the fourth meeting of the focal points appointed by the Governments of the signatory countries of the Declaration on the application of Principle 10 of the Rio Declaration on Environment and Development in Latin America and the Caribbean, held in Santiago from 4 to 6 November 2014,¹ thus launching the negotiations on the regional agreement on access to information, participation and justice in environmental matters.

The first meeting of the negotiating committee of the regional agreement on access to information, participation and justice in environmental matters in Latin America and the Caribbean was held in Santiago on 5-7 May 2015. On that occasion, the countries adopted the Organization and work plan of the negotiating committee of the regional agreement on access to information, participation and justice in environmental matters in Latin America and the Caribbean.²

At the second meeting of the negotiating committee, held in Panama City from 27 to 29 October 2015, the countries reviewed the preamble, article 1 and part of article 2 of the compiled text. The results of that review were incorporated into a second version of the compiled text (LC/L.4059/Rev.1).

At the third meeting of the negotiating committee, held in Montevideo on 5-8 April 2016, the countries concluded the review of article 2 and reviewed articles 3 to 5 and part of article 6. In addition, the committee adopted the Modalities for participation of the public in the negotiating committee of the regional agreement on access to information, participation and justice in environmental matters in Latin America and the Caribbean.³

At the fourth meeting of the negotiating committee, held in Santo Domingo from 9 to 12 August 2016, the countries concluded the review of article 6 and reviewed part of article 7.

Acknowledging the significant progress made in the negotiations on articles 6 and 7 of the text compiled by the Presiding Officers, the representatives of the countries participating in the fourth meeting of the negotiating committee of the regional agreement on access to information, participation and justice in environmental matters in Latin America and the Caribbean agreed that those advances would be reflected in a fourth version of the document. They also agreed to resume the negotiations on articles 7 to 10 at the fifth meeting of the negotiating committee, using the fourth version of the compiled text, review outstanding issues from the preamble to article 10, and discuss the way forward for the negotiations. Furthermore, as was requested at the fourth meeting, ECLAC has consolidated the language proposals received to date in this fourth version of the compiled text and has included the proposing country in the body of the document, with a view to moving forward more efficiently in the negotiations.

³ See LC/L.4163.
Pursuant to the agreements adopted by the negotiating committee at its fourth meeting, the secretariat is herewith making available to countries and the public a fourth version of the compiled text.

Considerations regarding the preamble and articles 1 to 10

During its second, third and fourth meetings, the negotiating committee reviewed the paragraphs of the preamble, articles 1 to 6 and part of article 7 (numerals 1 to 5). The points on which consensus was reached in the meeting room were marked as “agreed”. As to the points on which no consensus was reached, it was agreed that the country putting forward each new or alternative proposal would be reflected, as would any countries supporting the proposal, on the understanding that any countries not mentioned preferred the original text of the preliminary document prepared by ECLAC at the request of the countries. The language proposals submitted by the countries that could not be combined or condensed are grouped into suggested modifications, deletions or additions to the original text of the preliminary document, or suggested redrafts. The comments made by the countries during the meeting are contained in footnotes with Arabic numerals. The comments submitted by countries in writing on parts of the text that were not revised during the meeting are included in endnotes with Roman numerals.

Pursuant to the Organization and work plan of the negotiating committee and as requested by the countries, the secretariat compiled the inputs submitted by the public on the preliminary document prepared by ECLAC in a separate document. All the original communications received from the countries, as well as the inputs submitted by the public, may be consulted online at http://www.cepal.org/en/input-preliminary-document, http://negociacionp10.cepal.org/2/en/additional-input-for-the-meeting, http://negociacionp10.cepal.org/3/en/node/16 and http://negociacionp10.cepal.org/4/en/additional-input.

PREAMBLE

The Parties to the present Agreement,¹

I ante. Reaffirming the importance of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, as well as other international instruments relating to human rights and international law. We emphasize the responsibilities of all States, in conformity with the Charter of the United Nations, to respect, protect and promote human rights and fundamental freedoms for all, without distinction of any kind as to race, colour, sex, language, religion, political or other opinion, national or social origin, property, birth, disability or other status. [Brazil, Argentina] [not revised in the meeting room]

1. Reaffirming all of the principles of the 1992 Rio Declaration on Environment and Development (hereinafter, “Rio Declaration”) and particularly Principle 10 thereof, which establishes, “Environmental issues are best handled with participation of all concerned citizens, at the relevant level. At the national level, each individual shall have appropriate access to information concerning the environment that is held by public authorities, including information on hazardous materials and activities in their communities, and the opportunity to participate in decision-making processes. States shall facilitate and encourage public awareness and participation by making information widely available. Effective access to judicial and administrative proceedings, including redress and remedy, shall be provided”, [agreed]

1 bis. Reaffirming that the Heads of State and Government and High Representatives undertook a commitment through the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development to achieve sustainable development in its three dimensions —economic, social and environmental— in a balanced and integrated manner, to eradicate poverty in all its forms and dimensions, to ensure the lasting protection of the planet and its natural resources and to promote inclusive economic growth, [Mexico] [not revised in the meeting room]

1 ter. Reiterating that “States have, in accordance with the Charter of the United Nations and the principles of international law, the sovereign right to exploit their own resources pursuant to their own environmental and developmental policies, and the responsibility to ensure that activities within their jurisdiction or control do not cause damage to the environment of other States or of areas beyond the limits of national jurisdiction”, in accordance principle 21 of the Stockholm Declaration on the Human Environment and principle 2 of the Rio Declaration on Environment and Development, [Mexico] [not revised in the meeting room]

2. Recalling the Declaration of the United Nations Conference on the Human Environment, Agenda 21, the Programme for the Further Implementation of Agenda 21, the Declaration of Barbados and the Programme of Action for the Sustainable Development of Small Island Developing States, the Mauritius Declaration and the Mauritius Strategy for the Further Implementation of the Programme of Action for the Sustainable Development of Small Island Developing States, the Johannesburg Declaration on Sustainable Development, the Plan of Implementation of the World Summit on

Sustainable Development and the Small Island Developing States Accelerated Modalities of Action (Samoa Pathway), [agreed]

3. Recalling also that, in the outcome document of the United Nations Conference on Sustainable Development, held in Rio de Janeiro (Brazil) in June 2012, entitled “The future we want”, among the many provisions referring to Principle 10 of the Rio Declaration, the Heads of State and Government and high-level representatives acknowledged that democracy, good governance and the rule of law, at the national and international levels, as well as an enabling environment, were essential for sustainable development, including sustained and inclusive economic growth, social development, environmental protection and eradication of poverty and hunger; underscored that broad public participation and access to information and judicial and administrative proceedings were essential to the promotion of sustainable development; and encouraged action at the regional, national, subnational and local levels to promote access to information, public participation in decision-making and access to justice in environmental matters, as appropriate, [agreed]

4. Recalling further the adoption, at the United Nations Conference on Sustainable Development, held in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, from 20 to 22 June 2012, of the Declaration on the application of Principle 10 of the Rio Declaration, reaffirming the commitment to the rights of access to information, participation and justice regarding environmental matters, recognizing the need to make commitments to ensure the full exercise of those rights and declaring a willingness to launch a process to explore the feasibility of adopting a regional instrument, [agreed]

5. Emphasizing that the countries of Latin America and the Caribbean have underscored the importance of the application of Principle 10 of the Rio Declaration in the framework of the United Nations Environment Assembly of the United Nations Environment Programme, the Human Rights Council, the Forum of Ministers of the Environment of Latin America and the Caribbean, sessions of ECLAC and the Community of Latin American and Caribbean States (CELAC), among others,

6. Emphasizing also that national laws, instruments and practices have led to advances in the implementation of access rights,

Suggested redraft of paragraph 6:

Emphasizing also that the national laws, instruments and practices of the signatory countries of the Declaration on the application of Principle 10 have led to advances in the implementation of access rights and that national laws and practices are the main parameters for reaching agreements on and applying the rights and obligations under the present Agreement [Mexico] [not revised in the meeting room]

6 bis Recalling regional and global developments in the area of rights of access in forums such as [Mexico: Recalling regional and global developments in the area of rights of access in forums such as Recalling the progress made on access through the agreements and declarations adopted in regional and global forums, such as] the Port of Spain Accord on the Management and Conservation of the Caribbean Environment, the Port of Spain Consensus of the Caribbean Regional Economic Conference, the St. George’s Declaration of Principles for Environmental Sustainability and the Treaty of Basseterre of the Organization of Eastern Caribbean States, the Convention on Access to Information, Public Participation in Decision-making and Access to Justice in Environmental Matters (Aarhus Convention) and its Protocol on Pollutant Release and Transfer Registers, the Guidelines for the Development of National Legislation on Access to Information, Public Participation and Access to Justice in Environmental Matters (Bali

7. Resolved to make commitments to ensure the full exercise of the rights of access to information, participation and justice in environmental matters enshrined in Principle 10 of the Rio Declaration, understanding these to be important prerequisites for building a citizenry that is committed to sustainable development in line with a rights-based approach [Colombia: in line with a rights-based approach],

Suggested redrafts of paragraph 7:

Resolved to make even more significant progress towards the full implementation of access rights enshrined in Principle 10 of the Rio Declaration, taking into account the provisions of the road map for the creation of an instrument on the application of Principle 10 in Latin America and the Caribbean and the Lima Vision for a regional instrument on access rights relating to the environment, recognizing that “an instrument for Latin America and the Caribbean will contribute to ensuring effective and timely access to environmental information, participation in decisions that affect the environment and access to justice in environmental matters for all”, [Mexico] [not revised in the meeting room]

Resolved to forge a system of rights and obligations for the full implementation of the rights of access to information, participation and justice in environmental matters, as enshrined in Principle 10 of the Rio Declaration, recognizing these to be important for building a citizenry that is committed to sustainable development, [Mexico] [not revised in the meeting room]

8. Recognizing that everyone has the right to a healthy environment [Ecuador, Plurinational State of Bolivia: to be exercised] in harmony with nature, [Colombia, Mexico: in harmony with nature] which is essential for the full development of human beings and for the achievement of sustainable development [Brazil, Mexico, Colombia, Jamaica, Peru: in its three dimensions (social, economic and environmental) in a balanced manner], poverty eradication, equality, and the preservation and stewardship of the environment for the benefit of present and future generations [Brazil, Mexico, Colombia: poverty eradication, equality, and the preservation and stewardship of the environment for the benefit of present and future generations]

9. Taking into account that exercising access rights deepens and strengthens [Mexico: contributes to strengthening] democracy and contributes to better protection of the environment and thus of human rights, [Mexico: and contributes to better protection of the environment and thus of human rights and to better protection of the environment,]

10. Reaffirming the obligations assumed by the Parties [Colombia: by the Parties] to respect, protect and fulfill the right to freedom of thought, expression, assembly and association [Colombia: and association assembly, association and privacy], and the right to information, participation in public affairs and access to justice, among others, established in international human rights law, \(^2\) [Colombia: established in international human rights law in accordance with the obligations enshrined in the relevant instruments established in international human rights law and domestic laws of the signatory countries to the declaration,] [Mexico: Reaffirming the obligations assumed to respect, protect and fulfil access rights under the present Agreement.]

11. Emphasizing that access rights are interrelated and interdependent, and so each and every one of them should be promoted and implemented in an integrated and balanced manner, [agreed]

12. Bearing in mind that access to information is fundamental in all democratic societies and that it is essential to take active measures to bring environmental information into the public domain, doing everything possible to guarantee [Brazil, Saint Vincent and the Grenadines, Argentina: guarantee promote] ready, rapid, effective and practical access to that information, [Colombia: doing everything possible to guarantee ready, rapid, effective and practical access to that information, within the specific circumstances of each State,]

Suggested modification to paragraph 12:

Bearing in mind that access to information is key to making progress towards sustainable development, to which end it is essential to take timely, faithful measures to bring environmental information into the public domain in order to enable the public to participate responsibly and give objective opinions in decision-making processes that affect the public’s well-being and environment, taking into account the characteristics of and in accordance with national legal frameworks, [Mexico]

13. Reaffirming that it is essential to promote participation by all sectors of society in furthering the issues that form the region’s environmental agenda, as an important part of [Brazil: furthering the issues that form the region’s environmental agenda, as an important part of] the process of building and establishing a collective awareness [Brazil, Costa Rica, Panama, El Salvador, Guatemala, Peru: building and establishing a collective awareness raising awareness] of the diverse natural and cultural heritage of our peoples, in order to advance social inclusion, enhance solidarity, eradicate poverty and inequality and restore the balance and the health and integrity of our planet,

Suggested redraft of paragraph 13:

Reaffirming that the participation of society in the formulation and application of an environmental agenda by the countries contributes to the conservation and the sustainable use of natural resources and the achievement of sustainable development, [Mexico]

14. Recalling that, as a fundamental pillar of Principle 10, constraints on or the lack of suitable means by which to access justice in environmental matters deprives people of the “right to rights” by denying them or limiting real ways to exercise them, and that the principles underpinning rule of law, as well as equality, accessibility and effectiveness, must be guaranteed [Colombia: guaranteed maintained] not only at the start but all the way through the settlement process,

Suggested redrafts of paragraph 14:

Recalling that, as a fundamental pillar of Principle 10, suitable means by which to access justice in environmental matters must be available to all, and that the principles underpinning the rule of law, as well as equality, accessibility and effectiveness, must be guaranteed not only at the start, but all the way through the settlement process, [secretariat at the request of Argentina] [not revised in the meeting room]
Bearing in mind that access to justice in environmental matters will benefit from independent, effective and accessible judicial processes, [Mexico]

15. Recognizing that cooperation, in all its modalities, and institutional capacity-building are essential for the full implementation of access rights,

Suggested redraft of paragraph 15:

Recognizing that cooperation with a view to strengthening institutional capacities and actions to raise awareness and develop capacities at different levels in government and society contribute to promoting access rights and sustainable development, [Mexico]

16. Bearing in mind also that it is necessary to promote environmental education in order to, inter alia, raise awareness among the public sector and the public, in order to contribute to the effective implementation of access rights, and provide people with the knowledge, skills and understanding they need to participate in environmental decision-making,

17. Underscoring the important contribution and fundamental role of the public and social organizations, [Antigua and Barbuda, Jamaica: including faith-based organizations,] and especially women, children and youth, indigenous peoples [Ecuador: and nationalities] [Honduras: and ethnic groups] and other groups and constituencies in the effective implementation of access rights and the attainment of sustainable development,

Suggested redraft of paragraph 17:

Underscoring the importance of public participation and recognizing that social organizations, women, boys, girls, youth, indigenous peoples, the public sector, the private sector and other groups and communities can contribute to the effective implementation of access rights and the achievement of sustainable development, [Colombia, Mexico, Brazil]

18. Reiterating that, regardless of the measures agreed upon in order to strengthen the full implementation of access rights, nothing shall preclude, and the Parties shall be encouraged to adopt, additional measures to ensure even broader access to information, participation and justice in environmental matters,

Suggested redraft of paragraph 18:

Reiterating that, regardless of the measures agreed upon in order to strengthen the full implementation of access rights, the Parties may adopt additional measures, consistent with national legislation, to promote the application of rights of access to information, participation and justice in environmental matters, [Mexico]

19. Recognizing the multiculturalism of the Latin America and the Caribbean region and the different cosmovisions of its peoples, [agreed]

⁶ Colombia and Mexico express reservations on the drafting of the paragraph.
⁷ Mexico and Panama suggest considering the drafting of paragraph 20. Colombia suggests considering the drafting of paragraph 15.
⁸ Costa Rica, Panama and Chile express reservations to the inclusion of the new paragraph.
Suggested redraft of article 1:

The objective of the present instrument is the implementation in Latin America and the Caribbean of access rights as enshrined in the Declaration on the application of Principle 10 of the Rio Declaration, [Mexico]

Article 2

Definitions

For the purposes of the present Agreement:

“Access rights” means the rights of access to environmental information, public participation in the decision-making process [Brazil and Mexico: in environmental matters] and access to justice in environmental matters, as enshrined in Principle 10 of the Rio Declaration.

“Competent authority” means any public body that, by legal mandate, exercises the powers, authority and functions for the application of access rights. In the right of access to information provisions set out under article 6 the present Agreement, a competent authority shall mean any public authority in any branch of the State (executive, legislative and judicial) and at any level of the internal government structure (central or federal, regional, provincial or municipal); it also applies to independent and autonomous bodies, organizations and entities owned or controlled by the government, whether by virtue of powers granted by the Constitution or other laws, as well as to private organizations that receive substantial public funds or benefits (directly or indirectly) or that perform public functions and services, but only with respect to the public funds or benefits received or to the public functions and services performed.

Suggested redraft of article 2, definition of “competent authority”:

“Competent authority” means any public body or institution that, by legal mandate, and within the sphere of its powers, is responsible for the application of access rights in accordance with the provisions of the legislation of the respective State party. [Mexico, Colombia]

Suggested addition of definition of “public authority involved” [Brazil, Mexico, Argentina]

“Persons in vulnerable situations” [Jamaica, Antigua and Barbuda: “Vulnerable groups”] means those persons [Costa Rica, Uruguay, Chile: or groups] who, because of their age, gender, physical or mental condition, or social, economic, ethnic and/or cultural circumstances, face particular difficulties in fully exercising the access rights recognized in this Agreement. The causes of vulnerability may include, [Trinidad and Tobago: inter alia.] age, disability, belonging to [Colombia: ethnic groups,] indigenous communities or minority groups, victimization, migration and internal displacement, [Colombia: armed conflict,] poverty, gender and deprivation of liberty. The determination of persons in vulnerable situations in each country shall depend on its specific characteristics, including its level of social and economic development. [Mexico, Jamaica, Brazil, Antigua and Barbuda: all the foregoing consistently with its national legislation].

9 Uruguay expresses reservations.
10 Mexico suggests including environmental matters among causes of vulnerability. Colombia suggests a more general definition.
“Environmental information” means any information that is written, visual, audio, electronic or recorded in any other form, concerning the state of the environment and natural [Costa Rica: cultural and genetic] resources [El Salvador: traditional knowledge and genetic resources], including information on possible adverse impacts associated with the environment [Brazil: in the context of sustainable development] and human health [Colombia, Plurinational State of Bolivia: public health] [Costa Rica, El Salvador: human health]

(a) the state of the biotic and abiotic elements of the environment, such as the air and atmosphere, water, earth, landscapes, protected areas, biological diversity and its components, including genetically modified organisms; and the interaction between these elements;

Suggested deletion of letter (a) of the definition of “environmental information” [Mexico, Colombia, Honduras, Costa Rica, El Salvador, Brazil, Saint Lucia, Argentina, Panama] [Peru: reconsider these subparagraphs in other articles of the text]

(b) factors, such as substances, energy, noise, radiation and waste, including radioactive waste, emissions, spills and other releases into the environment, that affect or could affect elements of the environment;

Suggested deletion of letter (b) of the definition of “environmental information” [Mexico, Colombia, Honduras, Costa Rica, El Salvador, Brazil, Saint Lucia, Argentina, Panama] [Peru: reconsider these subparagraphs in other articles of the text]

(c) legislation, administrative acts related to environmental matters or that affect or could affect the elements and factors cited in subparagraphs (a) and (b), and the measures, policies, rules, plans, programmes that support them;

Suggested deletion of letter (c) of the definition of “environmental information” [Mexico, Colombia, Honduras, Costa Rica, Uruguay, El Salvador, Brazil, Saint Lucia, Argentina, Panama] [Peru: reconsider these subparagraphs in other articles of the text]

(d) reports and administrative acts on compliance with environmental legislation;

Suggested deletion of letter (d) of the definition of “environmental information” [Mexico, Colombia, Honduras, Costa Rica, Uruguay, El Salvador, Brazil, Saint Lucia, Argentina, Panama] [Peru: reconsider these subparagraphs in other articles of the text]

(e) economic and social analyses, as well as other studies used to make decisions related to the legislation, administrative acts and supporting mechanisms referred to in subparagraph (c);

Suggested deletion of letter (e) of the definition of “environmental information” [Mexico, Colombia, Honduras, Costa Rica, Uruguay, El Salvador, Brazil, Saint Lucia, Argentina, Panama] [Peru: reconsider these subparagraphs in other articles of the text]

(f) the state of the health and safety of individuals, living conditions, cultural assets [Jamaica: assets sites and built structures], when these are or could be affected by the state of the elements of the environment cited in subparagraph (a) or any of the factors or measures indicated in subparagraphs (b) and (c);

11 Saint Lucia spoke as an observer country in the process of formally joining the process.
Suggested deletion of letter (f) of the definition of “environmental information” [Mexico, Colombia, Honduras, Costa Rica, El Salvador, Brazil, Saint Lucia, Argentina, Panama] [Peru: reconsider these subparagraphs in other articles of the text]

(g) acts, resolutions, and decisions on matters related to the environment that are issued by the national judicial and/or administrative bodies; and

Suggested deletion of letter (g) of the definition of “environmental information” [Mexico, Colombia, Honduras, Costa Rica, Uruguay, El Salvador, Brazil, Saint Lucia, Argentina, Panama] [Peru: reconsider these subparagraphs in other articles of the text]

(h) any other information on the environment or on elements, components or concepts related thereto in Antigua and Barbuda: for the protection of the environment for the present and future generations and protection of human health.

Suggested deletion of letter (h) of the definition of “environmental information” [Mexico, Colombia, Honduras, Costa Rica, Uruguay, El Salvador, Brazil, Saint Lucia, Argentina, Panama] [Peru: reconsider these subparagraphs in other articles of the text]

Suggested additional letter in the definition of “environmental information”:

(i) Community knowledge and traditional knowledge, practices of indigenous peoples and innovations, practices and knowledge acquired through generations. [Antigua and Barbuda]

(i bis) Information on the income the State receives from the exploitation of its natural resources. [Peru]

Suggested redraft in article 2, definition of “environmental information”:

“Environmental information” means any information that is written, visual, audio, and electronic, or recorded in any other form, regarding, inter alia, the state of the environment and its elements, natural resources, biodiversity, including genetic resources, and information on possible adverse impacts associated with factors affecting or likely to affect the environment and human health, and issues related to environmental management.” [Trinidad and Tobago, Chile, Jamaica, Grenada]

“Public participation” means the process by which natural or legal persons, individually or collectively, contribute to decision-making on environmental matters through different modalities of participation that are institutionalized or otherwise established in accordance with national legislation or practice.

“Public” means one or more natural or legal persons and, their associations, organizations or groups, [Jamaica, Mexico, Brazil, Plurinational State of Bolivia, Colombia, Honduras, Argentina: in accordance with national legislation or practice].

“Directly affected public” means public affected or potentially affected by decisions with environmental impacts [Mexico: with environmental impacts taken, in accordance with the provisions of national legislation and practices]. [Costa Rica, Argentina, Colombia, Plurinational State of Bolivia, Brazil, Honduras, Panama, Dominican Republic: suggest deleting this definition]

Suggested redraft of definition of “directly affected public”:
“Directly affected public” means the public that, owing to place of residence or other characteristics, perceives particular advantages or disadvantages as a result of the decision at hand. [Panama] [not revised in the meeting room] [Costa Rica, Argentina, Colombia, Plurinational State of Bolivia, Brazil, Honduras, Dominican Republic: suggest deleting this definition]

“Public concerned” means the public affected or likely to be affected by, or having an interest in, the environmental decision-making. [Uruguay, Peru, Ecuador] [Costa Rica, Argentina, Colombia, Plurinational State of Bolivia, Brazil, Honduras, Panama, Dominican Republic: suggest deleting this definition]

“Public concerned” means the public affected or likely to be affected by, or having an interest in, the environmental decision-making. For the purposes of this definition, non-governmental organizations promoting environmental protection and meeting any requirements under national law [Jamaica] [Saint Vincent and the Grenadines, Chile: and meeting any requirements under national law] shall be deemed to have an interest. [Costa Rica, Argentina, Colombia, Plurinational State of Bolivia, Brazil, Honduras, Panama, Dominican Republic: suggest deleting this definition]

“Decision-making in environmental matters”\(^{12}\) means the development, implementation, compliance [Panama: compliance], [Brazil: monitoring] and evaluation of laws and regulations [Panama, Plurinational State of Bolivia, Peru, Mexico: laws and regulations normative frameworks], policies, plans, strategies, programmes, projects —whether [Mexico: whether] public or private liable to affect the environment or the use, exploitation or conservation of natural resources [Costa Rica, Uruguay: conservation and sustainable use of natural resources the use, exploitation or conservation of natural resources] at all levels of the internal government structure (central or federal, regional, provincial or municipal). [Mexico: at all levels of the internal government structure (central or federal, regional, provincial or municipal), in accordance with national legislation and practices].

Suggested deletion of the definition of “environmental decision-making” [Colombia]

Suggested addition of the following definitions:

“Access to justice” means any judicial process through which an expeditious and comprehensive resolution to a legal conflict of an environmental nature is sought [Colombia: from national jurisdictional bodies] [Chile: from national jurisdictional and administrative bodies], under equal conditions of the parties [Paraguay: to the litigation] [Chile: to the proceedings], with a view to obtaining an individually and socially fair outcome. [Argentina] [Uruguay, Colombia, Chile: under equal conditions of the parties, with a view to obtaining an individual and socially fair outcome]

“Access to justice” means the removal of barriers, inter alia, legal, social, and financial, to allow persons to seek redress on environmental matters through any [formal or informal] institution of justice, while affording equal treatment for all parties. [Saint Lucia]

“Environmental justice” means the possibility that legal conflicts of an environmental nature receive from the jurisdictional bodies expeditious and full settlement, which, to the degree that it can be achieved by the courts of justice, will contribute to environmental protection and the promotion of sustainable development. [Argentina] [Uruguay, Paraguay, Saint Lucia, Colombia: delete this definition]

\(^{12}\) Brazil requests that “environmental decision-making” be replaced with “decision-making on environmental matters” throughout the whole document.
Article 3
Principles

The measures adopted to fulfil the objective of the present Agreement and apply its provisions shall be guided, inter alia, by the following principles:

a. Principle of equality and non-discrimination;

b. Principle of transparency and accountability;

c. Principle of cooperation;

d. Principle of non-regression and progressive realization;

e. Principle of good faith;

f. Preventive principle;

g. Precautionary principle;

h. Principle of intergenerational equity;

i. Principle of disclosure of public information.

Suggested addition of principles:

j. Sovereignty of States over their natural resources. [Mexico, Argentina] [Uruguay: include in preamble instead of here]

k. Legal equality of States [Paraguay] [Argentina: legal sovereign] [Uruguay: include in preamble instead of here]

l. Pro persona [Panama, Chile, Costa Rica, Argentina, Brazil, Uruguay, Jamaica, Trinidad and Tobago, Antigua and Barbuda, Saint Lucia, Grenada]

Article 4

13 Mexico enters a reservation. It was agreed to delete the proposed principle of responsible use of information and include it in articles concerning access to information.

14 Bolivia (Plurinational State of), Colombia and Honduras enter reservations to this principle.
Article 5
General obligations

1. In order to contribute to sustainable development, the Parties shall ensure the full enjoyment of the right of all individuals to live in a healthy and sustainable environment that enables them to guarantee their health and well-being and the effective enjoyment of their human rights in harmony with nature.

Suggested deletion of article 5, numeral 1 [Colombia, Uruguay, Mexico, Antigua and Barbuda, Jamaica, Saint Lucia, Grenada, Trinidad and Tobago, Costa Rica, Honduras, El Salvador, Guatemala, Plurinational State of Bolivia]

2. Each Party shall adopt the legislative, regulatory or other measures necessary to guarantee full implementation of the provisions of the present Agreement.

Suggested deletion of article 5, numeral 2 [Colombia]

Suggested redraft of article 5, numeral 2:

Article 10

Capacity-building and cooperation

1. To guarantee implementation of the provisions of the present Agreement, the Parties shall promote capacity-building and cooperation based on national demands and needs, specific regional considerations, flexibility, efficiency and effectiveness, results-based management and consideration of the target audiences. The purpose of capacity-building and cooperation will be to establish a framework for peers to share experiences and carry out activities of common interest.

2. The Parties shall cooperate to build capacity and strengthen human and institutional resources to implement the present Agreement in an effective manner, particularly in those Parties that are least developed countries or Caribbean small island developing States.

3. For the purposes of implementation of the previous paragraph, and within the framework of the commitments established in the present Agreement, cooperation modalities may include, inter alia:
   (a) discussions, workshops, exchanges of experts, technical assistance, education and awareness-raising and observatories;
   (b) development, exchange and implementation of educational, training and awareness-raising materials and programmes at the national and international level;
   (c) voluntary codes of conduct, guidelines, good practices and/or standards;
   (d) sharing of experiences at all levels; and
   (e) use of committees, councils and public-private platforms to address cooperation priorities and activities.

4. A clearinghouse on access rights, to be managed by the secretariat, is hereby established for the purpose of promoting synergies and coordination in capacity-building.

   The Parties shall provide to the clearinghouse on access rights whatever may be required in accordance with the decisions adopted by the Conference of the Parties, which may include, inter alia:
   (a) legislative, administrative and policy measures on access rights;
   (b) information on the national focal point and the competent authority or authorities; and
   (c) codes of conduct and good practices.

   The Conference of the Parties, at its third meeting at the latest, shall examine operational modalities for the clearinghouse on access rights, including reports on its activities and take decisions with respect to those modalities.

5. In fulfilment of the commitments assumed under the present Agreement, each Party, to the extent of its ability, shall promote and facilitate, at the national level:
   (a) capacity-building and guidance for the competent authorities and entities to help them perform their duties under the present Agreement. These measures may include, inter alia:
(i) training for officials and authorities to assist and guide the public in access to information, participation and justice in environmental matters;
(ii) provisioning of government offices with human and technological resources, including information and communications technologies, to deliver assistance to the public; and
(iii) ongoing evaluation and improvements consistent with the collection of qualitative and quantitative information on the environment.

Suggested addition under article 10, numeral 5, letter (a):

(iv) the hiring of interpreters or translators of indigenous languages. [Peru]

(b) promotion of environmental education and public awareness concerning environmental matters, so the public will know how to proceed to gain access to information, participate in decision-making and take recourse to justice. These measures may include, inter alia:

(i) organization of awareness campaigns targeting the general public;
(ii) promotion, on an ongoing basis, of public access to relevant information, as well as broad public participation, in education and awareness activities;
(iii) promotion of the establishment of associations, organizations or groups that help raise awareness among the public;
(iv) development and implementation of training and awareness programmes for the public, especially disadvantaged groups on access rights;
(v) preparation and dissemination of basic educational modules on access rights for students in primary and secondary school; and
(vi) training for workers, scientists, educators and technical and management personnel.

6. The Parties shall cooperate, as applicable, with existing global, regional, subregional and national institutions and organizations. In this context, the Parties may partner with, inter alia, non-governmental, academic and private [Peru: civil society and indigenous peoples’] organizations and other relevant stakeholders.

Article 11

Resources

1. Each Party, to the extent of its ability, subject to budgetary availability and in accordance with its national policies, priorities, plans and programmes, commits to provide the resources for national activities that are needed to fulfil the obligations assumed under the present Agreement.

2. A fund, to be managed by the secretariat, is hereby established to finance implementation of the present Agreement to be defined at the Conference of the Parties in accordance with article 12.

3. The Conference of the Parties shall examine the possibility of establishing other financial provisions by consensus and technical assistance mechanisms to facilitate implementation of the present Agreement. It shall also explore additional means of financing for implementation of the present Agreement.
Article 12
Conference of the Parties

1. A Conference of the Parties is hereby established.

2. The Executive Secretary of the Economic Commission for Latin America and the Caribbean shall convene the first meeting of the Conference of the Parties no later than one year after the entry into force of the present Agreement. Subsequently, ordinary meetings of the Conference of the Parties will be held at regular intervals to be decided by the Conference.

3. Extraordinary meetings of the Conference of the Parties will be held when the Conference deems necessary or when a Party so requests in writing, provided that within six months of the secretariat’s notification of the request to the Parties, at least one third of the Parties support the request.

4. At its first meeting, the Conference of the Parties shall:

   (a) discuss and approve the rules of procedure for subsequent meetings, including the modalities for significant participation by the public;

   (b) discuss and approve by consensus the Fund and other financial provisions for the functioning of the bodies of the present Agreement; and,

   (c) discuss and approve the rules of procedure and membership of the body created under article 17.4.

5. The Conference of the Parties shall keep implementation and effectiveness of the present Agreement under permanent review and evaluation. To that effect, it shall:

   (a) establish such subsidiary bodies as it deems necessary for implementation of the present Agreement;

   (b) cooperate, as applicable, with the competent international organizations and bodies and intergovernmental and non-governmental entities;

   (c) receive communications from the Parties on the lessons learned from the conclusion and implementation of bilateral and multilateral agreements or other agreements related to the objective of the present Agreement to which one or several of them are party, and share these with all the Parties;

   (d) consider all recommendations made to it pursuant to article 17.4;

   (e) prepare and adopt, as applicable, protocols to the present Agreement;

   (f) examine and adopt proposals to amend the present Agreement in accordance with the provisions of article 19; and

   (g) examine and adopt any additional measures needed to achieve the objective of the present Agreement.
Article 13
Right to vote

Each Party to the present Agreement shall have one vote.

Article 14
Presiding Officers

1. At the Conference of the Parties, the Parties shall elect Presiding Officers consisting of at least one chair and two vice chairs, one of whom will act as rapporteur.

2. The Presiding Officers shall exercise their functions until the next meeting of the Conference of the Parties.

3. The functions of the Presiding Officers will be:

   (a) to support implementation of the present Agreement, with the support of the secretariat;

   (b) to convene, along with the secretariat, the meeting of the Conference of the Parties;

   (c) to chair the meetings of the Conference of the Parties and ensure compliance with the rules of procedure; and

   (d) to perform other functions derived from agreements reached at the meetings of the Conference of the Parties.

Article 15
Secretariat

A secretariat is hereby established to exercise the following functions:

   (a) convene and prepare the meetings of the Conference of the Parties and its subsidiary bodies and provide the necessary services;

   (b) implement the rules of procedure for participation by the public in meetings of the Conference of the Parties and its subsidiary bodies;

   (c) provide assistance to the Parties for capacity-building, including the sharing of experiences and exchange of information and the organization of activities in accordance with article 10; and

   (d) perform any other secretariat functions specified in the present Agreement and any other functions as determined by the Parties.
Article 16
Consultative groups or subsidiary bodies

1. The Conference of the Parties may create specialized technical panels or groups to advise the Parties on specific issues relevant to implementation of the present Agreement or other issues related to implementation of access rights [Peru: which shall include representatives of civil society and indigenous groups in the panels].

2. The technical panels or groups may be composed of representatives from all the Parties. Meetings of the technical panels or groups will be open.

Article 17
Implementation, monitoring and evaluation

1. At the meetings of the Conference of the Parties, the Parties shall report on the policies and measures (legal, institutional or otherwise) adopted to implement the present Agreement as well as activities conducted with the public. The Conference of the Parties may adopt individual or collective recommendations to this effect.

2. With a view to implementing the provisions of the present Agreement, those Parties that are least developed countries or Caribbean small island developing States shall be taken into account.

3. The secretariat may prepare periodic implementation guidelines and good practices for promoting the exchange of experiences in fulfilment of the provisions of the present Agreement.

4. A Facilitation and Follow-up Committee is hereby established as a subsidiary body of the Conference of the Parties, to promote application and support the Parties with implementation of the present Agreement based on capacity-building and cooperation.

   The Committee will be non-adversarial, non-judicial and of a consultative nature to review compliance of the provisions of the present Agreement and formulate recommendations, with special attention to the national capacities and circumstances of the Parties. The Committee will allow appropriate participation by the public and review communications from the Parties, other entities of the present Agreement and members of the public. It may also submit recommendations for the consideration of the Conference of the Parties.

5. The Conference of the Parties shall establish a peer review mechanism to evaluate observance of the provisions of the present Agreement. The rules of operation shall ensure effective participation by the public and will be established by consensus by the Conference of the Parties no later than at its third meeting.

6. The Conference of the Parties shall evaluate the effectiveness of the present Agreement no later than six years after the date of its entry into effect, and periodically thereafter at intervals that it will determine.
Article 18
Settlement of disputes

1. If a dispute arises between two or more Parties with regard to the interpretation or implementation of the present Agreement, these Parties shall endeavour to resolve it through negotiation or any other means of dispute resolution they consider acceptable.

2. Upon signing, ratifying, accepting, approving or acceding to the present Agreement, or at any time thereafter, a Party may indicate in writing to the Depositary, with respect to any disputes not resolved in accordance with paragraph 1 of this article, that it agrees to regard as obligatory one or both of the following means of dispute settlement in its relations with any Party that agrees to the same obligation:

(a) presentation of the dispute to the International Court of Justice; and/or

(b) arbitration in accordance with the procedures that the Conference of the Parties will establish, as feasible.

3. If the parties to the dispute have accepted both means of dispute settlement mentioned in paragraph 2 of this article, the dispute may be submitted only to the International Court of Justice, unless the parties agree otherwise.

Article 19
Amendments

1. Amendments to the present Agreement may be proposed by any Party.

2. Amendments to the present Agreement shall be adopted at a meeting of the Conference of the Parties. The text of any proposed amendment shall be communicated to the Parties by the secretariat at least six months before the meeting at which it is proposed for adoption. The secretariat shall also communicate the proposed amendment to the signatories to the present Agreement and, for information, to the Depositary.

3. The Parties shall make every effort to reach agreement on any proposed amendment to the present Agreement by consensus. If all efforts at consensus have been exhausted, and no agreement reached, the amendment shall as a last resort be adopted by a three-fourths majority vote of the Parties present and voting at the meeting.

4. An adopted amendment shall be communicated by the Depositary to all Parties for ratification, acceptance or approval.

5. Ratification, acceptance or approval of an amendment shall be notified to the Depositary in writing. An amendment adopted in accordance with paragraph 3 of this article shall enter into force for the Parties having consented to be bound by it on the ninetieth day after the date of deposit of instruments of ratification, acceptance or approval by at least three fourths of the number of Parties that were Parties at the time at which the amendment was adopted. Thereafter, the amendment shall enter into force for any other Party on the ninetieth day after the date on which that Party deposits its instrument of ratification, acceptance or approval of the amendment.
Article 20
Signature, ratification, acceptance, approval and accession

1. The present Agreement may be signed by any of the countries of Latin America and the Caribbean included in annex 1 at (city, country) on (date), and thereafter at the United Nations headquarters in New York until (date).

2. The present Agreement will be subject to the ratification, acceptance or approval of the States that have signed it. The Agreement will be open to accession by any country in Latin America and the Caribbean included in annex 1 starting on the day following the deadline for signing the Agreement. Instruments of ratification, acceptance, approval or accession will be deposited with the Depositary.

3. The States are encouraged to transmit, at the time of their ratification, acceptance, or approval of the Agreement or accession to it, information to the secretariat on the measures they will take to comply with the provisions of the present Agreement.

Article 21
Entry into force

1. The present Agreement will enter into force on the ninetieth day after the date on which the fifth instrument of ratification, acceptance, approval or accession has been deposited.

2. With respect to each State that ratifies, accepts or approves the present Agreement or accedes to it after the fifth instrument of ratification, acceptance, approval or accession has been deposited, the present Agreement will enter into effect on the ninetieth day after the date on which the State has deposited its instrument of ratification, acceptance, approval or accession.

Article 22
Reservations

No reservations may be made to the present Agreement.

Article 23
Termination

1. At any time after a period of three years from the effective date of the present Agreement with respect to a Party, that Party may terminate the present Agreement by providing written notification to the Depositary.

2. The termination will take effect one year after the date of which the Depositary receives the corresponding notification, or thereafter, on the date indicated in the notification.

Article 24
Depositary

The Secretary-General of the United Nations will be the Depositary for the present Agreement.
Article 25
Authentic texts

The original of the present Agreement, whose texts (Spanish and English) are equally authentic, will be deposited with the Secretary-General of the United Nations.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned, duly authorized, have signed the present Agreement.

DONE at (city, country) on (date).

Argentina. We believe this concept should be discussed in greater depth. Furthermore, it should be specified what is meant by common indicators, who will establish them, etc. As drafted, it seems to indicated that there would be evaluation entities beyond the national level.

Jamaica. Capacity concerns. Also, seek clarification from ECLAC on the paragraph. What will the review process entail, is it an independent audit? What about review of legislation?

Antigua and Barbuda. Should a competent authority destroy information in its possession? Is the information to be kept forever? Information can be kept in a technological format which does not require a lot of space. It could prove to be very valuable in a historic context. Should the competent authority consult with the public before destroying any information and should the public be able to have the information which the competent authority was going to destroy?

Colombia. Suggest clarifying that the information may be destroyed provided that its expiry date has been defined, in accordance with the rules of each Party.
Colombia: More information is needed on this proposal.
Guatemala: Before agreeing on numeral 12, consider and align with the provisions of the Law on Access to Public Information.

Colombia. Colombia reiterates that the preliminary document gives very precise instructions on how this principle should be implemented. In this connection, we reiterate the importance of giving more general guidelines in order to make implementation more simple and effective. This relates to the principle of maintaining the pace of the process.

Guatemala. Article to be implemented in accordance with the domestic legislation of each Party.

Colombia. The scope of the proposed paragraph must be specified since the vast majority of government decisions have an impact on the environment.

Colombia. Conferences of the Parties are traditionally established for instruments of a binding nature. Since the nature of this process has not yet been defined, we request deletion of this paragraph until these discussions have been concluded.

Jamaica. This provision can be interpreted in two ways: (1) for Parties to include mechanisms for public participation and (2) for Parties to champion the issue of public participation at international and regional meetings. Clarification is needed from ECLAC as to which interpretation should be adopted.

Guatemala. Care should be taken when regulating matters that favour only one group of persons since this could go against the principle of equality.

Argentina. It is not clear who would assume these costs. Peru: It is recommended that the implications of financial assistance in contexts of citizen participation should be analysed. Furthermore, “the topic of public participation in environmental oversight and monitoring is absent” in this article and a suggestion is made to include it.

Colombia. Provisions on this matter should be more general.

Argentina. This article could be broadened to guarantee the right to a second hearing in all procedures and processes in which decisions are taken on environmental rights or obligations, in accordance with international procedural guarantees.

Colombia. Colombia considers this paragraph to be very specific on the institutions to be set up in respect of access to justice.

Guatemala. For those States Parties that already have established legal processes and procedures that recognize environmental crimes, it should be specified that those processes and procedures are effective, reasonable, fair, open, rapid, transparent, equitable and timely.

Peru: It is suggested to have a greater debate and to consider the option of including “financial guarantees.”

Peru: The reversal of the onus of proof is unconstitutional under Peruvian law, especially in criminal matters. (Nevertheless it merits discussion).

Jamaica. The precautionary principle could be adopted as it is recognized in international and regional agreements provided that is what is being implied.

Antigua and Barbuda. All workshops, seminars and programmes should also be available in all the traditional and indigenous languages used in the country.

Jamaica. What kind of “activities of common interest” are envisaged by ECLAC?

Jamaica. There is need for further clarification on this paragraph.

Jamaica. Softer language could be used.
