

ECONOMIC COMMISSION FOR LATIN AMERICA

Second Session

TOURISM

Resolution of June 13, 1949

THE ECONOMIC COMMISSION FOR LATIN AMERICA

CONSIDERING that tourism is a factor of great importance in the economy of various Latin American countries;

EXPRESSES its satisfaction with the work of the Third Inter-American Congress on Tourism, held under the auspices of the Organisation of American States;

REQUESTS Governments to give due attention to the resolutions approved at that Congress and REQUESTS the Executive Secretary, in making the Economic Survey of Latin America, to take into account the economic aspects of tourism, mainly in its relation to the balance of payments, transport and capital investment.
