

ECONOMIC COMMISSION FOR LATIN AMERICA

ANNUAL REPORT

(7 May 1976 - 6 May 1977)

VOLUME I

ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL COUNCIL
OFFICIAL RECORDS: SIXTY-THIRD SESSION

SUPPLEMENT No. 11

UNITED NATIONS
New York, 1977

8. Analysing the prospects for trade with other developing areas, undertaking, as far as possible, a study of new trade flows which could be created:

9. Preparing projections of external financing, taking particular account of the problems of debts and debt servicing, which can facilitate the study of alternative policies that could be proposed in order to situate these variables within the context of the global development goals of countries;

Urges the secretariat to enter into closer contact with the governments of the countries of the region in order to give overall consideration to the methodological bases, objectives and goals of their development plans and policies so that these can be taken into account in preparing regional projections together with the work done in this field by other relevant regional bodies.

367 (XVII) HUMAN RESOURCES

The Economic Commission for Latin America,

Considering that Latin America attaches vital importance to skilled human resources, which constitute an asset built up with great effort,

Mindful that the loss of this important asset can seriously retard the continued development of the countries of the region,

Recognizing that there is a pressing need to take steps to reduce the emigration of this human asset,

Instructs the Executive Secretary of CEPAL to appraise as rapidly as possible, in co-ordination with other bodies of the United Nations, the effects of the emigration of skilled human resources to countries outside the region, specify its causes and determine its effects on Latin American economic and social development, and propose measures aimed at ensuring that the human capital of the Latin American countries remains in, returns to and increases in the region.
